Sober Finances Simplified

A Minimalist Approach to Financial Tracking for Your Sobriety Journey

The Clean Slate Financial Inventory

Overview and Introduction

Welcome to your personalized financial tracking worksheet. This tool is designed to help you monitor your financial health while concentrating on your sobriety journey. By using this worksheet, you can gain clarity over your finances and make informed decisions that support your recovery.

Purpose

- Track Expenses: Understand where your money goes each month.
- Manage Debt: Create a clear inventory of your debts to better plan your repayment strategy.
- Reflect: Use reflection prompts to connect your financial habits with your sobriety goals.

Debt Inventory

Non-Negotiable Monthly Expenses (The Baseline)

Expense Name	Required Amount	Due Date	Is this a TRUE NEED? (Yes/No)

The Debt Inventory (Financial Amends)

Below is a table designed to help you organize and keep track of your debts. Fill in the necessary details to get a comprehensive view of your financial obligations.

Debt/Creditor Name	Total Amount Owed	Minimum Monthly Payment	Interest Rate (if known)	Amends Priority (HIGH/MED/LOW)
Creditor 1
Creditor 2
Creditor 3
Creditor 4
Total:

Priority Definition Note: Amends Priority HIGH means this debt is owed to family, friends, or anyone whose trust is critical to your sobriety.

Action Steps

- Review the table at the end of each month.
- Prioritize debts with the highest interest rates.
- Consider reaching out for financial counseling if needed.

Reflection and Monthly Review

Asset & Income Snapshot (What You Are Building)

Income Source (Assets)	Current Value	Financial Security

Reflection Space: "Next Steps for My Clean Slate:" (Open lines for you to write 3 immediate actions, like "Call sponsor about this list," or "Research debt consolidation.")

Monthly Reflection

Use this section to reflect on your financial choices and how they align with your sobriety goals. Consider these prompts:

- What financial decisions did I make this month that I'm proud of?
- Where do I see opportunities for improvement?
- How do my spending habits reflect my priorities in sobriety?

Monthly Review Table

Category	Amount Spent	Notes
Groceries
Transportation
Health & Wellness
Entertainment
Savings
Total:

Next Steps

- Set realistic financial goals for the upcoming month.
- Plan a budget that supports both your financial health and sobriety.

By actively engaging with this worksheet, you’re taking a significant step towards aligning your financial life with your sobriety journey. Embrace each step with patience and self-compassion.